AMY HEUSTED FILES TO RUN AS GOP WRITE-IN FOR LD29 HOUSE SEAT IN JULY PRIMARY

Heusted is endorsed by Congresswoman Debbie Lesko, former Senate Majority Leader Rick Gray,
and former Maricopa County GOP Chairman Chris Herring

EL MIRAGE, Ariz – Amy Heusted has filed to run as a write-in candidate in the Primary Election for one of the two LD29 House of Representatives seats, following the withdrawal of one of the incumbents. Encouraged to run by many who have lived in and served the district for years, Heusted is well-known for her work ethic and no-nonsense approach to getting things done.

Amy, a Certified Dementia Practitioner, an Assisted Living Coordinator at a senior living community, specializing in dementia care and building an environment around the resident’s needs. An avid outdoorsman, she is strong supporter of the 2nd amendment. Heusted brings her years of party and community service in supporting strong, safe neighborhoods, productive schools, and has worked tirelessly for an effective Republican Party. The mother of two college-aged daughters, she and her husband have lived in the west valley for 22 years.

“The sudden vacancy of a House candidate for the LD29 primary created a need for a representative who can think for themselves, is a strong, principled conservative with the temperament to get things done. My life has been an exercise in service and my career devoted to doing what is right for others. I am excited to now put my abilities to work for the people of LD29 and for all of Arizona.” - Amy Heusted

Among those who urged Heusted to run in the primary were long-time and highly respected leaders in the west valley, Congresswoman Debbie Lesko, former Senate Majority Leader Rick Gray, and former Maricopa GOP Chairman Chris Herring. With the addition of Heusted to the primary ballot, Republicans are assured that the primary election will send two conservative Republican candidates to the general election.

ENDORSEMENTS:

“It is without hesitation that I endorse Amy Heusted for the open seat for LD29 Arizona House of Representatives. Amy is among the smartest, hardest working, fearless conservative women I have ever known. Her service will reflect that to the great benefit of LD29 and Arizona. Please join me in supporting Amy.” Congresswoman Debbie Lesko

“The voters of LD29 deserve a House member who has the skills necessary to do the job. The person they select needs to be a steady, strong leader, who is ready to serve, not just willing to run for office – I can think of no one better for the voters in LD29 to put their trust in than Amy Heusted. She is trustworthy, smart, and has the grit to get things done.” Former Senate Majority Leader Rick Gray

“The People of LD29 take seriously the right to choose their elected representatives and Amy Heusted for the House is my choice. As a lawmaker Amy will be a consistent conservative vote, unafraid to stand her ground with integrity and respect for the will of the voters. Amy is one of a kind and LD29 is lucky to have her.” Former Maricopa County GOP Chairman Chris Herring.
